Nes Ammim is a village in the Western Galilee, Israel, dedicated to encounter and dialogue, learning, and hospitality. It is home to an international Christian community of volunteers that was founded in 1963 and is supported by European Christians and churches. Motivated by the lessons of the past and the challenges of the present, we live, work, and learn in solidarity with the diverse people of the region and the country—Jews, Muslims, Christians, Druze, and others.

Our Centre for Learning and Dialogue (CLD) offers study, dialogue, and community activities for volunteers, villagers, local discussion groups, and others who wish to experience the community for a short time. Our 48-room hotel welcomes guests from all over the world. We have built a residential community with the goal of enabling Jews, Arabs, and others to live together peacefully as a hopeful sign for the region, the country, and beyond.
Do you have a heart for Israel? Are you interested in working with a diverse group of people from different backgrounds and do you have experience in educational work? We are currently looking for a

Study leader and Pastor (M/F/D)

(in Nes Ammim, Israel)

Job description:

Supporting volunteers of all ages in their learning process about Israel, their Christian roots in Judaism, regional connections, and the conflicts and tensions within the country. They train volunteers in perspective flexibility, which means they can approach and understand different viewpoints with an open mind.

Tasks:

- Coordinating the annual planning and budget for the study program in close consultation with the management team
- Organizing excursions, seminars, and lectures throughout Israel
- Representing Nes Ammim's work nationally and internationally; giving presentations on Nes Ammim's work to visiting groups as needed (if desired)
- Preparing and conducting Sunday services and performing other spiritual duties
- Developing a concept for a bilingual school and contributing to its planning and implementation, depending on personal skills and available time.

Requirements:

We are looking for someone who ideally has a background in theology and education, whose heart beats for Israel, and who has experience and contacts on the ground in the country.

- Knowledge of the history of Israel and Judaism
- Preferably already contacts in the country to religious or social institutions
- Certified theological training as a pastor
- Experience working with people in an international and intercultural context, as well as with all age groups (especially young adults)
- An open attitude toward different backgrounds and opinions
- Ability to lead and motivate
- Strong communication skills; excellent command of English; knowledge of Hebrew and Arabic is an advantage
- Christian identity and identification with the core Christian values of Nes Ammim
- Full support for the mission and vision of Nes Ammim
- Willingness to live in a small international residential community for a period of preferably one year or longer.

We offer you:

- A full-time position
- Housing, meals, a monthly salary, use of a car, health insurance, and a contribution to a retirement plan
- Through your work, you'll visit many exciting places and build a large network in Israel
- Living and working in a beautiful setting.

Questions?

Do you have any questions about Nes Ammim, the position, or the application process? If so, please contact Deborah Sausmikat via hrm@nesammim.com.

Application process:

Please send us your CV and the filled out application form, including a letter of application explaining why you are interested in this position, why you would like to join our movement, and what Nes Ammim means to you from the perspective of your Christian faith. Please send your application to Deborah Sausmikat via hrm@nesammim.com.

An (e-)assessment may be part of the process. Nes Ammim values equal opportunity and is committed to diversity in the workplace.